

NEWSLETTER

September 2017

Welcome to Oxford Alpine Taekwondo's new look newsletter. Along with the new look newsletter we also have a few other changes.

Visit our new website at www.oxfordtaekwondo.club and like our Facebook page @oxfordtaekwondo to keep up with new information.

We also have a new billing process to streamline our accounts. We will now be emailing an invoice to you and encouraging payment via internet banking.

2018 Monthly Fees

The club has some exciting equipment goals for 2018. We are seeking quotes for a full set of mats to help us train on the same surface as tournaments. With the increased importance and focus on electronic scoring we are investigating options for equipment that will allow us to maximise our training for best effect in sparring. The mats alone will cost around $4,000 so funding applications and fundraising activities will continue in an effort to help us achieve those goals. Along with that, for the first time in 8 years, monthly fees will increase by $5 per month for adults and children from January 2018.

To encourage more family members to join we will be introducing a maximum of $50 for two family members and $60 for three or more.

Wellington Nationals 30th September – 1st October 2017

Fundraising activities towards our team competing at the Wellington Nationals at the end of this month have been extremely successful, meaning we were able to cover all costs relating to tournament entry fees and team jackets. We still have more funding applications to be decided upon, and any further monies received will be able to be distributed back to the competitors to help offset travel and accommodation costs.

Top of the South Blenheim 21st – 22nd October 2017

The Blenheim tournament is far more relaxed than Nationals, and a great way to experience tournaments for the first time or hone your skills. Fundraising continues to help cover entry fees and other costs. More on that as information comes to hand, however talk to any of the senior club members if you are interested in going, Graeme will be organising the entry pack soon.

Women's Only Self Defence Class

Spread the word, this fundraising activity will be put towards the Blenheim tournament, and the more people attending the more money to distribute. We will give you options and ideas on how to get out of situations you don't want to be in, and you might just have a giggle while you learn. Any questions please ask Matt, Cate, Simon or Graeme.
